O R D E R:

In the reference read above, the Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has stated that they entered into contract with M/s CMS Computers Ltd., finalized by APTS as service provider for reengineering of existing 2-tier CFST Project into 3-tier. The project was started on pilot basis in 3 offices viz., Hyderabad Central Zone, Vijayawada, Kadapa and check post at Shapur in Ranga Reddy District. The project has already been launched and Learners” Licences, Permanent Licences, Registration of vehicles are being done and documents are issued in the form of Smart Cards.

2. The Transport Commissioner, has stated that the Department proposed logically to extend the 3-tier Project to R.R. District (Attapur, Medchal, Uppal Ibrahimpatnam and Kukatpalli), Gudiwada and Nandigama in Krishna Dist., Proddatur in Kadapa District and all other Zones of Hyderabad (Malakpet, Bahadurpura, Secunderabad, Tolichowki) for uniformity in the application all the offices in the districts where pilot sites are located. R.R. District is proposed as it is peripheral to Hyderabad District. After stabilization of the project in all the above offices, the Department proposed to replicate the 3-tier project to entire State. In the Review Meeting of Transport Department taken up by Hon’ble C.M. on 12.05.2010 it was decided in principle “to expand the pilot 3-Tier Network through out the State in consultation with IT Department”.

3. The Transport Commissioner has stated that in pursuance of the above, the Secretary to Government was requested to constitute a Committee with officials of APTS, Transport Department and IT&C Department to work out the cost and other modalities for expansion of 3-tier system. In response to the said letter, the Principal Secretary to Government, IT&C Department nominated Joint Director (E-Governance) as a Member from IT&C Department. The M/s CMS computers Ltd., the Service Provider has already extended their services on the request of the Department to other offices of Hyderabad, Kadapa, Krishna and all offices in R.R. District and also the check posts at Renigunta, Chittoor District, Tetagunta, East Godavari District and Penugonda, Anantapur District.

4. The Transport Commissioner has requested the Government to constitute a Committee with the officials Members to (a) evaluate the proposal for extended pilot sites; and (b) working out modalities for expansion of 3-tier to the rest of the State.

5. Government after careful consideration hereby constitutes the Committee with the following official Members:-
